

WHAT OUR PEERS ARE SAYING

“Given the direction of health care reform, the field of FCN is excellently positioned to have real impact.

People are seeking personalized, accessible, high-quality care - and to be able to form a sincere connection with their health care provider.

In so many national meetings, I have heard the comment ‘Faith Community Nursing is where the growth should be’.”

WHY FCNI?

The rapid growth of the FCN specialty requires the need for additional avenues to:

- Pray for one another.
- Champion and promote FCN practice.
- Provide opportunities for spiritual growth.
- Increase the quantity and quality of related research.
- Enhance communication and networking opportunities worldwide.
- Build and expand the practice.
- Provide national professional advocacy.
- Identify and develop FCN leaders.
- Recognize the diversity of health needs around the world.
- Promote financial sustainable in our practice.
- Influence policy nationally and internationally.
- Build partnership to improve the health of the populations we serve.

VISION

A vibrant global network of Faith Community Nurses.

FCNI GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- We invite a shared intelligence and promote a sense of ownership – every FCN can contribute.
- Compassion, excellence, caring, and gratitude are hallmarks of all efforts.
- Respect for Faith and Service as a basis for professional practice, recognizing interfaith practices and beliefs are essential to growing our specialty.
- Care of the spirit, education and lifelong learning are underpinnings of our professional responsibilities.
- Integrity, honesty, and transparency are the basis for organizational business practices and services to members.
- We support FCNs in their efforts to provide excellence in professional practice through promotion of ANA Scope and Standards.
- Education to become a FCN begins with a course based on IPNRC core curriculum, “Foundations of Faith Community Nursing”.
- Compassion, excellence, caring and gratitude are hallmarks of all efforts.
