FINANCIAL AND REAL ESTATE TRAINING FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP AND STAFF

Who Should Attend:

Church Pastors, Treasurers,
Church Leadership and Staff

Why Attend:

Attendees will learn:

- How healthy and missional churches manage their finances
- How to structure your budget to make key ministry decisions
- The latest tax regulations for ministers
- Best practices to communicate the financial reports to leadership and congregation
- How to use and interpret financial dashboards
- How to assess whether your facility is a tool for effective ministry
- Why capital fundraising is good for your church

"I thought the course provided a lot of insight into the financial world. I enjoyed the speakers and thought that the binder provided was a great tool to use to follow along with the presentations as well as a good tool to take home and have as a resource! I would definitely attend another training seminar if more come available and would like to bring more people with that could benefit from the training as well."

- Annie Veldhouse, Bethlehem Covenant Church, Wheaton, MN

Peter brings 30 years of banking experience to NCP as its executive vice president and CFO, primarily from his time with US Bank where he most recently served as regional president in northeastern Minnesota. His extensive background in commercial lending and in the financial services industry is valuable as he manages the financial aspects of NCP.

*National Covenant Properties (NCP) has been serving member churches of the Evangelical Covenant Church since 1970 to provide loans for new church construction and church additions. Currently NCP has over $285 million in loans to more than 300 Covenant projects. Funds for these loans are obtained from NCP's sale of investment certificates.
