

Across the Divides

ACROSS CULTURES ❖ ACROSS GENERATIONS

Our changing culture requires intentional theological reflection by Christians, as we engage the challenges and opportunities of reaching across divides.

February 17-19, 2012
at Salem Covenant Church

FRIDAY WORKSHOP

February 17, 7:00 p.m.

Understanding the Need: Our Changing World

SATURDAY WORKSHOP

February 18, 9:30 a.m. to Noon

From Generation to Generation: Examining a Social History of American Christianity

SUNDAY SERMON

February 19, 8:30, 9:50, and 11:00 a.m.

Reaching Across the Divide: Understanding Mercy from the Prophet Jeremiah

Soong-Chan Rah is the Milton B. Engebretson Associate Professor of Church Growth and Evangelism at North Park Theological Seminary. He was founding pastor of Cambridge Community Fellowship Church, a multi-ethnic, urban, post-modern generation church in Cambridge, MA. Soong-Chan serves on the boards of Sojourners, the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA), World Vision, and the Catalyst Leadership Center. His speaking engagements include numerous college campuses and conferences. He has been published in Reconcilers Magazine and Leadership Journal and has been featured in Christianity Today. His books include The Next Evangelicalism, which was named one of the 10 best books of the year for 2009 by the journal Leadership, and Many Colors: Cultural Intelligence for a Changing Church, which won an award from Outreach Magazine as a best resource for multi-cultural ministry in 2010.

2655 FIFTH STREET NORTHWEST, NEW BRIGHTON, MN 55112
651-633-9615 ☎ www.salemcov.org

Across the Divides

ACROSS CULTURES ❖ ACROSS GENERATIONS

Our changing culture requires intentional theological reflection by Christians, as we engage the challenges and opportunities of reaching across divides.

February 17-19, 2012
at Salem Covenant Church

FRIDAY WORKSHOP

February 17, 7:00 p.m.

Understanding the Need: Our Changing World

SATURDAY WORKSHOP

February 18, 9:30 a.m. to Noon

From Generation to Generation: Examining a Social History of American Christianity

SUNDAY SERMON

February 19, 8:30, 9:50, and 11:00 a.m.

Reaching Across the Divide: Understanding Mercy from the Prophet Jeremiah

Soong-Chan Rah is the Milton B. Engebretson Associate Professor of Church Growth and Evangelism at North Park Theological Seminary. He was founding pastor of Cambridge Community Fellowship Church, a multi-ethnic, urban, post-modern generation church in Cambridge, MA. Soong-Chan serves on the boards of Sojourners, the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA), World Vision, and the Catalyst Leadership Center. His speaking engagements include numerous college campuses and conferences. He has been published in Reconcilers Magazine and Leadership Journal and has been featured in Christianity Today. His books include The Next Evangelicalism, which was named one of the 10 best books of the year for 2009 by the journal Leadership, and Many Colors: Cultural Intelligence for a Changing Church, which won an award from Outreach Magazine as a best resource for multi-cultural ministry in 2010.

2655 FIFTH STREET NORTHWEST, NEW BRIGHTON, MN 55112
651-633-9615 ☎ www.salemcov.org

Across the Divides

ACROSS CULTURES ❖ ACROSS GENERATIONS

Our changing culture requires intentional theological reflection by Christians, as we engage the challenges and opportunities of reaching across divides.

February 17-19, 2012
at Salem Covenant Church

FRIDAY WORKSHOP

February 17, 7:00 p.m.

Understanding the Need: Our Changing World

SATURDAY WORKSHOP

February 18, 9:30 a.m. to Noon

From Generation to Generation: Examining a Social History of American Christianity

SUNDAY SERMON

February 19, 8:30, 9:50, and 11:00 a.m.

Reaching Across the Divide: Understanding Mercy from the Prophet Jeremiah

Soong-Chan Rah is the Milton B. Engebretson Associate Professor of Church Growth and Evangelism at North Park Theological Seminary. He was founding pastor of Cambridge Community Fellowship Church, a multi-ethnic, urban, post-modern generation church in Cambridge, MA. Soong-Chan serves on the boards of Sojourners, the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA), World Vision, and the Catalyst Leadership Center. His speaking engagements include numerous college campuses and conferences. He has been published in Reconcilers Magazine and Leadership Journal and has been featured in Christianity Today. His books include The Next Evangelicalism, which was named one of the 10 best books of the year for 2009 by the journal Leadership, and Many Colors: Cultural Intelligence for a Changing Church, which won an award from Outreach Magazine as a best resource for multi-cultural ministry in 2010.

2655 FIFTH STREET NORTHWEST, NEW BRIGHTON, MN 55112
651-633-9615 ☎ www.salemcov.org

Across the Divides

ACROSS CULTURES ❖ ACROSS GENERATIONS

Our changing culture requires intentional theological reflection by Christians, as we engage the challenges and opportunities of reaching across divides.

February 17-19, 2012
at Salem Covenant Church

FRIDAY WORKSHOP

February 17, 7:00 p.m.

Understanding the Need: Our Changing World

SATURDAY WORKSHOP

February 18, 9:30 a.m. to Noon

From Generation to Generation: Examining a Social History of American Christianity

SUNDAY SERMON

February 19, 8:30, 9:50, and 11:00 a.m.

Reaching Across the Divide: Understanding Mercy from the Prophet Jeremiah

Soong-Chan Rah is the Milton B. Engebretson Associate Professor of Church Growth and Evangelism at North Park Theological Seminary. He was founding pastor of Cambridge Community Fellowship Church, a multi-ethnic, urban, post-modern generation church in Cambridge, MA. Soong-Chan serves on the boards of Sojourners, the Christian Community Development Association (CCDA), World Vision, and the Catalyst Leadership Center. His speaking engagements include numerous college campuses and conferences. He has been published in Reconcilers Magazine and Leadership Journal and has been featured in Christianity Today. His books include The Next Evangelicalism, which was named one of the 10 best books of the year for 2009 by the journal Leadership, and Many Colors: Cultural Intelligence for a Changing Church, which won an award from Outreach Magazine as a best resource for multi-cultural ministry in 2010.

2655 FIFTH STREET NORTHWEST, NEW BRIGHTON, MN 55112
651-633-9615 ☎ www.salemcov.org